

BC Employer Training Grant

Your step-by-step guide to getting up to 80% of training costs covered

What is the ETG?

The B.C. Employer Training Grant (ETG) reimburses BC employers for skills training. The government covers up to 80% of eligible training costs, up to $10,000 per employee per fiscal year. Your company can receive up to $300,000 total per year.

80% of costs covered	$10K max per employee	$3,970 course tuition
--------------------------------	----------------------------------	----------------------------------

Is my business eligible?

- You are a BC-based employer (private sector, non-profit, or First Nations)
- You have a Business BCeID (free to set up at bceid.ca)
- The employee is a Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- The training addresses a skills gap in your workforce

AI marketing training falls under "AI and Quantum Computing," a Look West priority sector.

The course: Creative AI for Marketing Teams

Instructor	Mia Liao (Mia Meow) — MBA, UBC. 10 years marketing. AI educator, 21K YouTube subscribers.
Duration	20 hours across 6 weeks (one session per week)
Format	Live, instructor-led (in-person Metro Vancouver or virtual)
Evaluation	Final project: participant produces a complete AI-generated marketing campaign

What it costs you

Course tuition	$3,970 CAD per participant
ETG covers (80%)	-$3,176
Your cost after grant	~$794 per participant

Additional tool costs: ~$125–150 CAD/participant (Claude Pro, Canva Pro, image credits). Separate from tuition.

How to apply (4 steps)

1. Get a Business BCeID — Register free at bceid.ca. Allow 5–10 business days for verification.
2. Apply online before training starts — Log into the Skills Training Grants System at workbc.ca/etg. You will need: business info, employee name and job title, course outline, and training start date. Training must start on or after the date of your application.
3. Start training — Training may begin before you receive a decision. If your application is denied, you are responsible for all costs. We recommend applying well in advance.
4. Submit your claim — Within 30 days of training starting, submit proof of completion and invoice through the portal. WorkBC reimburses 80% directly to you.

Important notes

- You apply, not the trainer. The employer submits the ETG application. Mia provides documentation and support.
- Apply before training starts. Training must begin on or after your application date. Training may start before approval, but you bear the cost if denied.
- Fiscal year resets April 1. The $10K/employee and $300K/company caps reset each fiscal year.
- Multiple employees welcome. Enroll multiple team members, each eligible for up to $10K individually.
